February 6, 2023

I previously indicated that I would not grant any further extensions. (Doc. 16.) Accordingly, I am hesitant to grant yet another and do so only on the basis of counsels' joint representation that this will be the last such request. Any further requests for extensions shall (1) abide by Rule 1.G of my Individual Rules on seeking extensions; and (2) be supported by declarations from both parties' counsel explaining why the parties have been unable to adhere to their promised timetables.

RE: PowerBlock Holdings, Inc. v. Tzumi Electronics LLC, Case No. 1-22-cv-07296
Letter Motion Requesting Extension of Time to Answer

Dear Judge Broderick:

As counsel for Defendant Tzumi Electronics LLC in this matter, we are writing jointly with counsel for Plaintiff PowerBlock Holdings, Inc. to update the Court that we are nearing a final written draft of the settlement in principle we have reached in this matter. Accordingly, we are jointly requesting a 7-day extension of the deadlines to answer the complaint in order to allow the parties time to execute the final settlement agreement.

Specifically, we are requesting that Tzumi's time to answer or otherwise respond to the Complaint be extended by seven (7) days, from today (February 6, 2023) up to and including February 13, 2023. There have been three previous extensions granted for this deadline. A prior extension for thirty (30) days was granted on January 5, 2023; an extension of sixty (60) days was granted on September 22, 2022; and a previous extension for forty-five (45) days was granted on November 21, 2022.

We are cognizant of the Court's admonition in the prior order granting an extension that it did not anticipate granting further extensions in this matter, and commit to having the settlement finalized without the need for further extensions.

Sincerely,

Guy Yonay
